Although both parties agree that this Court may utilize a representative claims approach for trial, they disagree over what those representative claims should be. The Court exhorts the parties further meet and confer in person in an effort to resolve this dispute and submit a status report by no later than June 26, 2006. Until this dispute is resolved, the Court cannot proceed with the current schedule set for dispositive motions in this matter. Therefore, the Court HEREBY VACATES the dispositive motions hearing date set for August 4, 2006. The Court also VACATES all deadlines related to the hearing date and the Further Case Management

Conference. The Court will by subsequent order, reset the hearing date on the dispositive motions with a set briefing schedule, as well as a Further Case Management Conference.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

Dated: June 12, 2006
